Success. We Got That.

Linda Holt is a CPA, based in Cleveland, Ohio. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Linda earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Chicago and a Master of Business Administration Degree from the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business. Linda spent several years with the Sears Headquarters organization in Chicago, Illinois and followed this assignment by joining British Petroleum (BP), then based in Cleveland, Ohio. During her term with BP, she held management positions in Corporate Accounting, Manufacturing and Supply, and Crude Oil Trading and Transportation. Ms. Holt subsequently practiced as a consultant to small businesses and followed this experience by transitioning to a career within the automotive sector that is indigenous to the Midwest. Linda managed several direct plant level functions within the automotive industry supply chain, including controller, operations management, purchasing, and logistics for several manufacturing companies. Currently, Linda holds the position of Vice President, Business Development, for the Crowne Group, a manufacturing organization based in Northeast Ohio. She is also President of Global Resources, LLC, a financial consulting company that specializes in mergers, divestitures, real estate financing and general financial matters and risk management.

Linda's interests include American History, Travel, Genealogy, Professional Sports and spending time with family. She is Chief Minister at Mega Church in Cleveland, Ohio and holds a Master of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies from Ashland Theological Seminary. She is Dean of Mega School of Theology, a training program for lay ministers. Linda is a supporter of the African American Success Foundation and believes that traditional values and models of success must be upheld in order for future generations to continue to build the country in the courageous manner demonstrated by their ancestors.
